

Karine Bellavance

Associate
Stikeman Elliott LLP
Montréal, Québec

Karine Bellavance is an associate in the tax group of the Montréal Stikeman Elliott office and a member of the National Pension and Benefits Group. Her practice primarily involves handling pension and benefits matters in corporate transactions, such as mergers and acquisitions. Karine provides advice on various aspects of pension and benefits law, including plan designs, governance, annuity purchases and administration. She offers guidance for a diverse range of pension plans, including both traditional defined benefit plans and capital accumulation plans. Before joining Stikeman Elliott, Karine worked as a legal consultant for a Canadian actuarial and benefits consulting firm for 13 years. Prior to that, she started her career practicing corporate litigation and employment law at a national law firm.
