Emily Allender

Attorney
Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation
Washinton, D.C.

Emily Allender is an attorney with Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) in Washington, D.C., where she has been for the last three years specializing in multiemployer pension plans, primarily the SFA program enacted as part of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021. Ms. Allender has also worked on multiemployer litigation for PBGC as well as regulatory and policy matters for the SFA final rule and the proposed 4213 regulation. Outside of PBGC, she was a contributor and editor for the 2024 ABA Treatise: Employee Benefits Law update and the vice-chair for the Young Lawyer's Division Labor and Employment Law Committee. Ms. Allender has presented at various conferences. She received her law degree from the University of Kentucky College of Law in 2021, where she was a member of the Kentucky Journal of Equine, Agricultural, and Natural Resources Law and received the Judge Rebecca Westerfield Award for Excellence in Leadership. Ms. Allender received her undergraduate degree from Miami University of Ohio in 2018. She is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.