

Kevin L. Barger, CEBS,
CEBS Compliant, FAHM, CPC

Director, Provider Solutions
Elevance Health
Richmond, Virginia

Kevin Barger is the director of provider solutions for Elevance Health. He has served in many capacities in his tenure with the company, including financial and reporting analytics as well as the development of contracting arrangements for physicians. Kevin is responsible for managing company relationships with external medical specialty societies, in addition to a variety of physician and hospital performance measurement activities and data analysis in Virginia and across the enterprise. He frequently addresses industry groups regarding high performance in health care. Kevin received an undergraduate degree in accounting and actuarial science from Thiel College, Greenville, Pennsylvania, and an M.B.A. degree from Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, Virginia. He holds the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) designation and the certified professional coder designation, and he is a fellow with the Academy for Healthcare Management. Kevin is a board member of the Richmond Chapter of ISCEBS.