

Joshua T. Barnett, PhD, MHS

Director of Provider Success
Goldfinch Health
Austin, Texas

Joshua T. Barnett, PhD, MHS, is Director of Provider Success at Goldfinch Health, where he partners with employers and hospitals to improve surgical outcomes and lower costs by reducing opioid-related complications and refills through better pain management support. In 15+ years of public and behavioral health leadership, he has served as CEO of Pinellas County's Bayside Health Clinic (FQHC) and as a health care administrator for Florida's Pinellas and Manatee Counties. He also advises government organizations on behavioral and community health, and teaches health services administration and public health as adjunct faculty at the Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine.

A recognized expert in indigent health care, Dr. Barnett focuses his research on enhanced recovery after surgery, hospital readmission reduction and opioid epidemiology. His work appears in Annals of Epidemiology, Frontiers in Public Health, the Journal of Drug Issues and an Oxford University Press book chapter.

He holds a PhD from the University of South Florida and a Master of Health Science from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health.
