

Pierre Blanchet, AMF

Member, Management Committee
Head of Business Development and Operations
Head of Investment Intelligence
Amundi Institute
Paris, France

Pierre Blanchet is part of the Amundi Institute Management Committee and is head of Business Development and Operations as well as Investment Intelligence. In this role, he promotes AI research to Amundi's clients and looks after day-to-day operations. Pierre also supports the firm's General Management and the Global Investment Committee, enhancing Amundi's thought leadership on macro and strategy themes. He was managing director at HSBC GB&M from 2010 to 2020. In his most recent position, Pierre was responsible for multi-asset strategy at HSBC Global Research in London and was highly ranked among institutional investors and in international surveys. Prior to this, he led equity derivatives strategy and multi-asset sales for HSBC Global Market in Europe. Before that, Pierre was head of equity long short funds at Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management. He held several senior positions at the Goldman Sachs special situations desk (2006 to 2008) and in the Morgan Stanley institutional markets division (2000 to 2006), focusing on cash and derivatives equity strategies. Pierre has been an associate professor in finance at HEC Paris (master of international finance) since 2012 and holds a master's degree in management from HEC Paris.
