

Tori Buffery

Senior Vice President, Secondary Private Equity
Neuberger Berman
Toronto, Ontario

Tori brings extensive experience to her role as senior vice president, secondary private equity, at Neuberger Berman. Prior to joining Neuberger in September 2025, Tori led a dedicated secondaries strategy at Nicola Wealth, a Canadian wealth manager, where she focused on GP-led secondary transactions. Prior to joining Nicola, Tori was a partner at Morningside Capital and led the firm's single asset secondaries strategy. While at Morningside, Tori played a pivotal role in growing the firm from nascency to over $400 million in assets under management. Prior to joining Morningside, Tori worked in the funds, secondaries and co-investments team at the Canada Pension Plan Investment Board in Toronto and London, UK. In 2025, Tori was named as a "Top 25 in '25 Women in Private Funds on the Move" by Kayo Conference Series, and in 2023, she was named as a "Woman of Influence in Private Markets" by Private Equity International. Tori serves as a board member for Women in Private Capital Canada and a member of the finance committee North York Harvest Food Bank in Toronto.
