

Alexandra Chamberlin

Investment Manager
J.W. McConnell Foundation
Montréal, Québec

Alexandra “Alex” Chamberlin is an impact investment manager at the J.W. McConnell Foundation, a Montréal-based family foundation with a mission to align 100% of its endowment to impact investing and to achieve net-zero carbon emissions in its portfolio. Prior to this position, she was investment manager at the Groupe Caisse des Dépôts, investing minority equity into organizations advancing the food transition and the circular economy in France. Alex also worked at CapShift, a U.S.-based impact investment advisor dedicated to foundations and donor-advised funds, and LITA.co, the leading impact crowd equity platform in Western Europe. She holds a dual degree from HEC Paris Business School and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University.
