

David D. Daquelente

Executive Director

Master Builders' Association of Western Pennsylvania, Inc.
(MBA)

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

David D. Daquelente is the executive director of the Master Builders' Association of Western Pennsylvania, Inc. (MBA), a trade association whose membership includes more than 240 of the top general contractors, construction managers, specialty contractors, and service and supplier companies supporting Western Pennsylvania's commercial construction industry. Daquelente began serving as executive director at the end of 2019, after most recently acting as the executive director for the Ironworker Employers Association. He brings a passion for the construction industry and over 20 years of experience, including as a member of the Carpenters Union following graduate school. Daquelente is deeply rooted in the Pittsburgh area and brings demonstrated strengths as a relationship builder, committed to both mission and membership by engaging with owners, contractors and labor leaders in regional and national service. He is proud to build on the strong labor management relationships in Western Pennsylvania, including locally through his roles serving as a board member on the Builders' Guild of Western PA and as a trustee on various multiemployer benefit funds. Nationally, Daquelente serves on boards of The Association of Union Constructors (TAUC) and the Executive Leadership Council (ELC) for AGC of America. Daquelente is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University, University of Pittsburgh's Entrepreneurial Fellows Class, and Leadership Pittsburgh LPXXXVII.
