

Chip Davis

Senior Vice President, Private Equity Group
50 South Capital
Chicago, Illinois

Chip Davis is a senior vice president in the Private Equity Group at 50 South Capital. He is primarily responsible for sourcing, evaluating and executing secondary investment opportunities. He is also involved with buyout, credit and venture capital fund investments and co-investments, and he participates in fundraising and portfolio management activities. Prior to joining 50 South Capital, Chip was a consultant at the Boston Consulting Group (BCG), a global management consulting firm. At BCG, Chip advised large financial institutions on organic growth strategies, operational improvements and M&A opportunities. Chip particularly focused on new disruptive technologies and was a founding member of BCG's FinTech team. Prior to BCG, Chip was a credit portfolio manager within Northern Trust's Corporate Banking Group, where he was responsible for the underwriting and financial analysis of a diversified $1.7 billion loan portfolio comprised of over 50 corporate borrowers. Chip began his career with Northern Trust in the Rotational Development Program. Chip received his B.A. degree in mathematics and economics from DePauw University.