

Gina Ehlert, M.Ed.

National Trainer
Mental Health First Aid USA
Loomis, California

Gina Ehlert is the president and chief learning officer of GETraining-Solutions, contracting with entities such as the National Council and U.C. Davis Extension's Center for Human Services to provide training and consulting services related to adult learning theory, curriculum development, leadership, supervision, management, poverty, communication, team building and other topics. Ms. Ehlert holds a bachelor of science degree in business management, a master of science degree in education, and more.