

Paul T. Esposito, Esq.

Principal
Slevin & Hart, P.C.
Washington, D.C.

Paul T. Esposito is a principal of the firm Slevin & Hart, P.C. and practices exclusively in the employee benefits law area. He has extensive experience in matters relating to Taft-Hartley health and pension plan design and tax qualification requirements, investments and plan administration. He also has experience representing public plans on those same issues. Mr. Esposito is a member of the New York State Bar Association and its Committee on Employee Benefits and Compensation and is a member of the National Association of Public Pension Attorneys. He has spoken at conferences for both of these associations on various employee benefit plan issues. Mr. Esposito is also a member of the District of Columbia Bar. He graduated from Princeton University with a B.A. degree from the Princeton School of Public and International Affairs. Mr. Esposito received his law degree from the George Washington University Law School.