

Bennett Hadley

Actuarial Associate Consultant
Segal
New York, New York

Bennett is an actuarial associate consultant at Segal where he serves as a reviewer and project manager on client teams for a variety of projects in the corporate retirement sector, including single employer pension valuations (under ERISA and PPA as well as CAS, FAS, and IAS pension accounting), single employer retiree health valuations, retirement plan nondiscrimination testing, retirement plan experience studies, and ad-hoc special projects. In addition, Bennett is the corporate market financial well-being solution leader and supervises Segal's financial well-being consulting engagements and market efforts. His insights have been quoted in articles from media outlets such as U.S. News & World Report and P&C Specialist. Before joining Segal, Bennett completed an internship in pension administration. He served as the project manager for the Council on Employee Benefits' Annual Conference Workshop Committee from 2018 to 2021. Bennett earned a bachelor of science degree in mathematics at Northeastern University. He is working toward an Associate of the Society of Actuaries (ASA) designation from the Society of Actuaries (SOA).
