

Todd G. Helfrich

President and Chief Executive Officer
Eastern Contractors Association, Inc.
Albany, New York

Todd G. Helfrich is president and chief executive officer of Eastern Contractors Association, Inc. (ECA), a commercial construction trade association in Albany, New York representing union contractors and management in their interactions with a number of construction trades. He is responsible for policy administration of association activities, including negotiating and administering building construction industry labor agreements, resolving jurisdictional disputes and grievances, and representing employers in arbitrations and National Labor Relations Board proceedings. Todd has many years of experience as a trustee on numerous Taft-Hartley training, pension, health and welfare, annuity and labor-management funds and as a labor relations representative. He currently serves as a management-designated trustee for Bricklayers Local 2 Pension, Welfare, Annuity and Training; North Atlantic States Carpenters Pension, Welfare, Annuity, Labor Management and Training; Laborers Local 186 Pension; Painters Local 466 Pension Plan; IUPAT DC Local 9 Painting Industry Insurance, Annuity and Training; Roofers Local 241 Pension, Insurance and Apprenticeship; and Operating Engineers Local 158 Training Fund. Todd currently serves as Immediate Past President and Chair of the International Foundation Board of Directors and its Executive Committee, as well as the chair of the Strategic Initiative Steering Committee, and member of the ISCEBS Board of Directors. Todd also previously served as Liaison to the Executive Committee for the Financial Review Committee and is a former Treasurer of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors. He earned a master's degree in international relations from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University and dual bachelor's degrees in government and history from Cornell University.