

Michael Keenan, M.A., CFA

Chief Investment Officer
Blue Bridge Wealth Management
Montréal, Québec

Michael Keenan is a seasoned investment professional with more than 25 years of institutional funds management experience. Prior to joining Blue Bridge Wealth Management, he spent more than 20 years—including seven years as chief investment officer—with Bimcor Inc., the pension investment subsidiary for the Bell Canada group of companies. Michael is a past chair of the Pension Investment Association of Canada and sits as an independent investment advisor for several pension funds and foundations. He is a CFA charterholder with a bachelor of arts and science degree in economics from McMaster University and an M.A. degree in economics from Western University.