

Jean M. Kelleher
Board Member
City of Alexandria Pension Plans
Alexandria, Virginia

Jean M. Kelleher is a trustee on the boards of the pension plans in the City of Alexandria, Virginia. She is currently serving as an interim deputy city manager and as the acting chief human resources officer. She has been the director of Alexandria's Office of Human Rights since 2000. Ms. Kelleher graduated from Connecticut College, did postgraduate work at Georgetown University and received her law degree from the Washington College of Law at American University. She became a Certified Public Manager through the Institute for Excellence in Public Leadership, which is a partnership between George Washington University and the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments. She is a past president of the Alexandria Bar Association, represented Alexandria on the Virginia State Bar Council and served as president of the International Association of Official Human Rights Agencies. In 2021, Ms. Kelleher was selected as a fellow of the Virginia Law Foundation, recognized for the promotion of public understanding of the law, the encouragement of excellence in the delivery of legal services and the improvement of the administration of justice.