

Michael P. Kreps
Principal
Groom Law Group, Chartered
Washington, D.C.

Michael P. Kreps is a principal at Groom Law Group in Washington, D.C. He counsels employers, plan sponsors, financial institutions, trade associations and coalitions on retirement, health, tax and employment matters. Kreps specializes in issues relating to public policy, fiduciary responsibility, and plan funding and restructuring. Previously, Kreps served as the senior pensions and employment counsel for the U.S. Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions from the 110th through the 114th Congresses. In that role, he managed all aspects of the committee's retirement agenda and had primary staff responsibility for pension legislation, including the pension investment provisions of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, the funding stabilization and Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation reform provisions of the MAP-21 Act of 2012, the Pension Relief Act of 2010 and the CSEC Pension Flexibility Act. He also led the committee's oversight of regulatory activities involving employee benefit plans. Kreps is a frequent speaker and writer on retirement and health policy. He holds a J.D. degree, with honors, from The George Washington University Law School and a B.A. degree, with distinction, in history and art history from the University of Colorado. He is active in his local community as a member of the Alexandria Commissions on Aging and Human Rights and is a member of the Sorensen Institute Political Leaders Program. Kreps is a member of the International Foundation Government Liaison Committee.