

Nelson Gia Tri Lam, CFA

Senior Vice President, Equity and Alternative Investments
Trans-Canada Capital Inc.
Montréal, Québec

---

As senior vice president, equity and alternative investments at Trans-Canada Capital (TCC), Nelson Lam oversees all externally managed mandates across public equities and alternative investment strategies, including real estate, infrastructure, private equity, private debt and hedge funds. He is a longstanding member of the Investment Committee (IC) and an active member of TCC's Executive Committee. Prior to joining the team in 2009, Nelson worked as a consultant and director of investments for several institutions. He has over 25 years of experience in establishing investment policies, selecting and monitoring third-party investment managers, as well as making asset allocation decisions. Nelson holds a bachelor of science degree in actuarial mathematics from Concordia University and is a CFA charterholder.