

Joseph L. Paller Jr.

Principal

Gilbert & Sackman, a Law Corporation
Los Angeles, California

Joseph L. Paller Jr. serves as neutral or co-counsel to boards of trustees of Taft-Hartley trust funds. He serves as an employment dispute arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association, is as an adjunct professor at the Gould School of Law at the University of Southern California and a chapter co-editor for the current edition of Employee Benefits Law and for Labor Union Law & Regulation. Paller's articles on labor and employee benefits issues have appeared in many books and journals, including the Labor Lawyer, the California Labor & Employment Law Quarterly, the Proceedings of the National Academy of Arbitrators and various white papers published by the AFL-CIO Lawyers Coordinating Committee. He is a union co-chair of ABA Subcommittee on Jointly Administered Plans and serves on the Personnel Commission of the Los Angeles Unified School District. Paller serves on the board of governors of the ACEBC and served on the board of directors of the AFL-CIO Lawyers Coordinating Committee. He was honored in U.S. News & World Report as the "Lawyer of the Year" in 2017 and 2020 in the greater Los Angeles metropolitan area in the field of "Labor Law-Union." Paller was also honored as the 2017 Distinguished Personnel Commissioner by the California School Personnel Commissioners Association. Paller is a fellow of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel (ACEBC) and the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. A graduate of UCLA School of Law, Paller has been admitted to practice law in California, Nevada, New York and Pennsylvania.