

Daniel Rhodes

Principal Consulting Actuary
Cheiron
Southington, Connecticut

Daniel Rhodes is a principal consulting actuary with Cheiron. He has more than 23 years of experience as a health actuary working with multiemployer, single-employer and public plans. His work includes health plan projections, rate setting, IBNR reserve development, plan design pricing, retiree medical valuations, retiree drug subsidy attestations and Affordable Care Act minimum value certifications. He helps plan sponsors and fiduciaries evaluate health plan costs, funding strategies and benefit design changes in a practical, data-driven manner. He serves on the Actuarial Standards Board task force revising Actuarial Standard of Practice No. 6 and is vice chair of the Society of Actuaries' cross-practice exam on long-duration coverages. Before joining Cheiron in 2024, he was a senior vice president and actuary at Segal. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries and a Fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries. He received a Bachelor of Arts with honors in applied mathematics from Harvard University.