

Ashley Sherrill, Ed.D.

Founder

LaughMore Consulting
Charlotte, North Carolina

Dr. Sherrill serves as the associate dean of Arts and Communication at Central Piedmont Community College. She is also an insightful educator and seminar speaker and the founder of LaughMore Consulting. Over the past 18 years, she has spoken in academic, business, medical and nonprofit settings throughout the United States. Dr. Sherrill brings both practical knowledge and research-based recommendations to bear on some of the most perplexing people challenges. An expert in human communication and interpersonal dynamics, her primary focus is on helping organizations create empowering and functional environments that are best-positioned to leverage their most crucial asset, their people.