

William C. Sproule

Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Eastern Atlantic States Regional Council of Carpenters

Edison, New Jersey

William C. Sproule serves as Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Eastern Atlantic States Regional Council of Carpenters (EASRCC), leading over 43,000 members across six states and Washington, D.C. Under his leadership, EASRCC has expanded work opportunities, strengthened apprenticeship programs, advanced labor standards, and driven organizing efforts.

Sproule began his career as an apprentice carpenter in 1989 and advanced through leadership positions including Organizing Director, New Jersey Regional Manager, and President and Regional Manager of the Northeast Regional Council of Carpenters before assuming his current position.

Sproule serves on the New Jersey Building Authority, New Jersey Energy Coalition, New Jersey State Building & Construction Trades Council, EASRCC Executive Board, EASRCC Scholarship Committee, and Eastern Atlantic States Benefit Funds. He has also served on the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Gaming Commissions and the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority.

His leadership has earned recognition on City & State's Who's Who in Labor, PA Power 100, and South Jersey Power 50: Most Influential People in Business. In 2018, he completed Dale Carnegie leadership training, strengthening leadership, communication, management, and organizational development.
