

Brian Stanley

Business Manager/Secretary-Treasurer
IUPAT District Council 53
Charleston, West Virginia

Brian Stanley has dedicated his career to strengthening union construction and industrial workforces through training, safety and strategic leadership. He currently serves as business manager/secretary-treasurer of the International Union of Painters and Allied Trades (IUPAT) District Council 53, a position he has held since January 2021. In his current role, Brian oversees council operations, contract negotiations, workforce development and labor-management partnerships across multiple trades, including industrial cleaning, coatings, drywall finishing and glazing. He has played a key role in expanding industry-recognized training programs, including WJTA-certified hydro blasting education, ensuring members are prepared to meet demanding safety and performance standards. Prior to becoming business manager/secretary-treasurer, Brian served for more than 12 years as director of marketing for IUPAT District Council 53. In that role, he focused on strategic planning, contractor relations, member outreach and promoting union labor's value to owners and industry partners. Brian has extensive experience in project planning, construction management, contract administration, strategic planning and team building. His work continues to focus on growing opportunities for union members while maintaining the highest standards of safety and professionalism in the industry.
