

Marcin Szajda, M.B.A.

Partner

BPEA

Boston, Massachusetts

Marcin Szajda is a partner at BPEA. BPEA is a Boston-based private equity firm focused on small and lower middle market buyout and growth investing as well as customized investment solutions to meet investors' private equity goals. Prior to joining BPEA in 2008, Marcin was an investment associate at the UNC Management Company, was the asset manager of the endowment for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and affiliated institutions, and served on the limited partner advisory committees of numerous private partnerships. He also has experience with Dogwood Equity, a small buyout firm in Raleigh, North Carolina, and with the Aurora Funds, a venture capital firm in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. Marcin began his career at Hewitt Associates, where he worked as an analyst in the defined contribution practice and later the corporate finance group. Marcin received a B.A. degree in economics from Rice University, a master of arts degree in law and diplomacy from The Fletcher School at Tufts University, and an M.B.A. degree with highest honors from the Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he was awarded a full fellowship.