

Jason Walden
Executive Director
Greater Cleveland-North Central Ohio NECA
Cleveland, Ohio

Jason Walden is the executive director of the North Central Ohio and Greater Cleveland Chapters of the National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA). He began his career in 1998 as an apprentice with IBEW Local 212 in Cincinnati, later serving as a foreman, training director, and project manager before assuming his current leadership roles. Since 2006, Jason has served as a trustee on numerous ERISA labor management trust funds. He has been actively engaged with the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, serving previously on its Health Care Management Committee and currently on its Trustees Committee. Nationally, Jason contributes to the Electrical Training ALLIANCE through the NTI Advisory Committee and the Core Curriculum/Computer-Mediated Learning (CORE/CML) Committee, helping shape training and educational standards across the industry. He has over 20 years of experience in labor-management relations, collective bargaining, and workforce development. Jason completed his apprenticeship through the IBEW-NECA Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee and has remained deeply committed to advancing safety, training, and governance in the electrical contracting industry.
